

QUESTIONS TO ASK SERVICE PROVIDERS

At Australian Inclusion Network we believe that good support means employing smart, capable people who are willing to do whatever it takes to be useful in your life.

Here are some questions that might be handy to ask potential service providers.

☆ Do you work evenings and weekends?

☆ Do I get to choose which staff members work with me?

☆ Do I get to choose my sessions times?

☆ Will I get updated on how much funding I have used?

☆ What happens if I am unhappy with the support I am getting?

☆ What happens to my funding if I go on holiday?

☆ Would you work with me in a group setting or by myself?

Choosing the right provider for you is an important step.

Make sure you take the time to chat to at least three providers before making your final decision.
